"ENJOYING THE AUTUMN DAYS OF LIFE" BY JAMES MCALISTER

"THERE IS AN APPOINTED TIME FOR EVERYTHING. AND THERE IS A TIME FOR EVERY EVENT UNDER HEAVEN—A TIME TO GIVE BIRTH AND A TIME TO DIE . . . A TIME TO WEEP AND A TIME TO LAUGH . . . A TIME TO KEEP AND A TIME TO THROW AWAY." (ECCLESIASTES 3:1FF)

This is a beautiful autumn day, just the kind that proved infinitely enjoyable when our son, his dog Smiley and I would go for long Sunday afternoon walks. Whenever fall crispness transfigures the leaves—and they begin to crunch under foot—I fondly recall those precious, delightful times.

On such a day as this, my mind carries me back, and we three are once again on one of our little jaunts. Old Smiley runs to investigate every rustle in the leaves and to chase every smell, covering three miles of back, forth and zigzag to our one. Then with a shout, my son suddenly brandishes a stick he has plucked off the ground and challenges me to a game of Robin Hood and Little John. We mount a fallen log, quarterstuffs clash, and I take a tumble. He guffaws about how he beats me every time.

Then we're back on the trail, encouraging Old Smiley with whistles and shouts to move toward the car—and the snacks waiting at home. Smiley huffs and puffs contentedly on the floorboard as we rehash the day's excitement on the return trip. Sometimes a treasure—a deer antler or jawbone with teeth—is waved before Mom, perhaps with a few embellishments of our adventure.

Old Smiley has been gone for years. My son now sleeps on Sunday afternoons to recuperate from a week of rigorous physical labor. And I am older and far less sturdy than I once was.

In one of his hymns, Isaac Watts penned this poignant line: "Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away; they fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the op'ning day." The significant people, times and places of the seasons of our lives come and go, leaving only memories—until time bears even those away.

Though autumn is my favorite time, I actually welcome each season of the year and look forward to the inevitable, predictable changes it will bring. Should it not be so with the seasons of life?

The writer of Ecclesiastes is right: each season and purpose of life has its proper place in God's grand scheme.

While I truly miss those past summer days of my life, shouldn't autumn bring its own unique perspectives and pleasures? Albeit the pace is slower, crunching fallen leaves underfoot without the ever-pressing responsibility of rearing small children imparts a different sort of joy.

I'm content to be in autumn and do not wish to relive spring or summer. Memories of them still linger—and suffice.

WELCA met on Thursday, September 8, 2016 with Linda Leister presenting the devotions. She spoke on Isaiah 6:8 on abilities versus gifts and loving kindness. Cynthia Smith gave the Treasurer's report and Barb Geedey conducted the business meeting.

We will begin our knitting class again on Monday, September 12th at 6:30 P.M. continuing to work on our prayer shawls and we will also discuss several other projects. Anyone who is interested is welcome to attend any session of the class.

Barb reported on the Action Day to be held at the Synod Office in Lewisburg. The date is Saturday, October 8 at 11 A.M. We are to bring a packed lunch and beverages and dessert will be provided. Contact Barb if you are interested in attending. Speakers for this event will be Ruth Koble, Dr. Tom Martin, and Kristie Hammaker. The topic is "Entitlements, an America Dream or a Nightmare?"

October 2 is Blanket Sunday and Linda Leister will contact Kathy Whitesel about delivering the quilts to Sunbury.

On Tuesday, September 20, following Needlers we will begin packing our kits and quilts to send to LWR as they will have to be delivered to Sunbury before our next scheduled meeting. Anyone who would like to help is more than welcome to come for Needlers and stay or come around 11:30 A.M.

Velma Suloff will provide devotions for our October meeting.

Delicious refreshments of gluten free cherry and apple pie with vanilla ice cream were provided by Cynthia Smith and Linda Leister. The tables were decorated with patriotic item. Thank you.

WHAT HAPPENED IN THE REFORMATION?

Martin Luther posted his “Ninety-Five Theses” in Wittenberg on October 31, 1517 and the resulting debate about Christian teaching and practice led to changes that have shaped the course of Western Christianity for almost 500 years. At the heart of these wide-reaching changes was a deep conviction that God’s mercy or grace in Jesus is given freely to all. When Luther and others learned to trust God’s mercy with “a living, daring confidence,” they discovered in that faith the freedom to give themselves generously, lovingly in all of life’s undertakings with everyone they met.

The changes began with a critical look at confession and forgiveness, preaching and the sacraments — what Luther called the “means of grace.” The sale of indulgences, the practice of penance, the content of preaching, the administration of Baptism and the Lord’s Supper — all the restrictions that impeded the message of God’s mercy from being heard and received fully by all came under close scrutiny. Repeatedly, Luther made changes and took initiatives to give full and free expression to the gospel, the message of God’s liberating mercy in Jesus Christ. He translated the Scriptures into German so that ordinary believers could hear the Word of God in their everyday language. He composed many hymns including “A Mighty Fortress” (based on Psalm 46) that put the Word of God to music, the language of the heart. He preached for the people in Wittenberg in simple, everyday terms, and he used those sermons as the basis for teaching resources that parents and local pastors could use — his Small and Large Catechisms.

WHY IS THE REFORMATION STILL RELEVANT?

The Lutheran Reformation offers to Christian communities everywhere a liberating way of listening to and speaking the Scriptures. The Reformation teaching that Christ’s life flows through faith into a life of service to the neighbor is especially liberating in our culture today.

The evangelical Lutheran Reformation offers the promise of God’s love that makes possible a life of “living, daring confidence in God’s grace.”

The Reformation teaching that faith is the work of God’s Holy Spirit is especially liberating in a culture that assumes a faith relationship with God is an act of human “free will.”

Many, both within Christian communities and beyond, are held captive by ideologies that limit the full scope of God’s mercy in Christ to demographic groups defined sociologically by certain beliefs, behaviors or experiences. The Reformation teaching that Christ’s life flows through faith into a life of service to the neighbor is especially liberating in a culture that makes religious life into a demonstration of one’s own worthiness and privilege to the disadvantage of others.

HOW IS THE ELCA OBSERVING THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION?

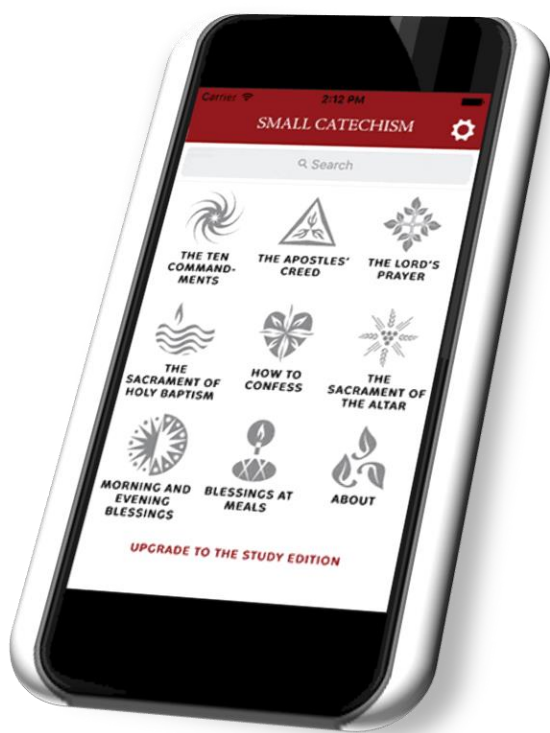

The ELCA is one church body organized in three expressions — congregations, synods and the church wide organization. Each expression has its particular functions but all three share a common mission of doing God’s work in the world and proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ. Congregations, members, synods and other institutions of the ELCA will be observing the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation by a variety of events and activities in the coming years. Many of the local activities will reflect the magnitude of work being done on a national and international scale.

Some areas of engagement will surround acknowledging what Martin Luther did to spark the Reformation, revisiting the roots of our Lutheran beliefs and what those roots mean today for us and our engagement with others.

In all of these activities, the ELCA seeks to find in this historic milestone an occasion to give a confident and joyful witness of the life and freedom in Jesus Christ that is for all.
