“IN SPRING” ... BY JAMES MCALISTER

As a young man, I never understood an activity that the “older” folk seemed to take some pleasure in doing. But my outlook has changed quite a bit in the last few years. Now, each time I visit a cemetery I am confronted with reminders of powerful truths that need frequent reinforcement.

Wander among graves and you’ll learn some things. For one, death is no respecter of persons; he visits infants and aged alike. Our pilgrimage here is brief, and the grave awaits us. We must prepare for that day.

But there’s something more certain than death: the resurrection of the dead. “Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.” (1 Cor 15:51). As friends and family precede us into death, the hope of the resurrection becomes even more precious and compelling.

Epithets from tombstones often have a ring of that hope. Here are two I have recently seen: “Weep not father and mother for me, for I am waiting in glory for thee.” — A 21-year-old wife. “Sleep on dear child and take thy rest, in Jesus’ arms forever blest.” — A 14-year-old girl. Though death may bring sorrow, Christians can see beyond the horizon of physical life into Paradise (Lk 23:43), where the dead in Christ await.

Along with ever-faithful friends Dean and Mamie Baney and Jan Simmons, we recently made another trek to the cemetery where our daughter Jenny is buried. Two things are especially memorable.

For one, we reenacted what has become a meaningful tradition. Before leaving, we stand near Jenny’s grave to hold hands and pray. Then Mr. Baney quotes that thrilling passage (1 Thes 4:13-18) about Christ’s return.

We’re always aware that the voice of the archangel and the trump of God could shatter our prayers — as the Lord Himself descends from heaven with a shout. What a thrill it will be to see both living and dead caught up together to meet the Lord in the air!

Nature provides a graphic foreshadowing of the resurrection as winter’s decay invariably yields to spring’s new life. This Spring Jan lovingly planted a blooming rose on Jenny’s grave, carefully watering it with the plant food that husband Keith had prepared.

From spring to spring, that blooming rose should continue to remind us that death is not the end. New life is inevitable. For Jenny ... and for all who are in Christ.

IN SPRING

*In spring, when sunlight gently falls
In golden heaps of dappled rays,
There open windows of recall
To other springs in other days.
This spring, on such a wistful day
‘Twas out of love two freely gave
A gift of more than words could say:
A blooming rose to grace a grave.
Each spring, that blooming rose’s pow’r
For touching hearts will e’er suffice
To call to mind another flow’r,
Our rose who blooms in Paradise.*

WELCA met on Thursday, March 9th at 7 P.M. in the Disciples Class room for a presentation by Esther Bratton on her recent trip to Liberia. It was a wonderful presentation and made everyone present very thankful for what we have. The purpose of the trip was to further relationships with the people of Liberia. However, Esther learned of the many needs of the people living there. Esther showed a power point presentation of their travels and the many people they met during their stay in Liberia. She also brought a variety of items to show to us that she purchased while in the country.

We had a very nice turn out for Esther's presentation.

Barb briefly discussed our next project through the ELCA. Wayne Miller has completed a chart for the presentation to the congregation. Barb will be presenting it very soon.

Barb also thanked everyone for helping with the first Lenten Tea held at our church.

The WELCA Synod Convention will be held at Camp Mt. Luther again this year on Saturday, July 22nd. Information will be coming soon. The Day of Learning will be held on Saturday, April 22 with the place to be determined.

Our meeting closed with refreshments of cake and ice cream.

Cynthia Smith will be our April devotion leader. The meeting will be held on Thursday, April 13th at 7 P.M.

STORE GIFT CARDS

Weis and Giant gift cards are available to purchase from the Disciples Class. This is a very important outreach ministry that helps neighbors in need in our own community. We thank each and every one for continued support of this very worthwhile project.

GET EXCITED FOR CAMP THIS SUMMER!

Campers of all ages are invited to come to Mount Luther this summer and take advantage of all the programs they have to offer! There are traditional, specialty and trip camps for school-aged kids and Family Camp for kids and adults. Mount Luther is located five miles west of Mifflinburg, in Union County. This year's theme is "The Water of Life," giving campers a new awareness of how water and life are gifts from God. Don't forget that if you register before April 1, 2017, you receive a discount on your camp fee. Or, if you bring a friend to camp who's never been here, you and the friend (or sibling or church buddy) can both get $25 off your registration!

Kate Swailes is serving this year as our camp person, a liaison between Mount Luther and our congregation. Because we have a camp person, you can see them to get an additional discount in the camp store! Jonah is a prophet – and a man on the run. From who? From God! After a series of wild adventures involving a seaport called Joppa, a huge boat and a terrible storm, Jonah finds himself in the belly of a giant fish! But this isn't the end. It's here that God teaches Jonah how to receive grace and extend mercy, even to his archenemy: Nineveh. Take your family deep into this Bible classic as it springs to life on stage in jaw-dropping scale by a world-class cast, spectacular special effects and live animals – on stage and in the aisles. This is not your average fish tale!
