The Messiah Herald

THE KINGDOM COMES

A man experiencing homelessness enters the church on Sunday morning, and the pastor greets him. As though to provide some sort of evidence that he deserves to be there, the man reaches into his wallet and hands her a yellowed, worn-out-from-folding piece of paper. The pastor's eyes move from the man to the paper, and she reads, "Certificate of Perfect Sunday School Attendance at First Lutheran Church." It is his most prized possession, carried through every crisis on a difficult journey.

Decades before, Sunday school teachers in the classrooms of First Lutheran Church had loved and served a little boy. Planning lessons on Saturday evenings, teaching him stories and songs about God's love each Sunday morning, they planted in him a sense of belonging, of being beloved by God. The kingdom work they started in that little boy still stirs in him as he crosses the threshold of a church and reaches into his wallet, handing his certificate to the pastor.

When Jesus sends the seventy out to proclaim the good news of God in every town, he makes it clear that whether they are welcomed or rejected, they are to say plainly that "the kingdom of God has come near" (Luke 10:9). As we move about our lives, we are called to love and serve where we are, trusting that when we leave, the Spirit remains.

The work of the Spirit is not finished when we leave a place. The in-breaking of the kingdom does not depend on our remaining or being present to continue the work. God will keep breathing life into people long after we have moved on, maybe even years after Sunday school teachers have awarded stars and certificates. The love we offer and the stories and songs we teach are just some of the ways we declare that the kingdom of God has come near. The Spirit moves, and we get to participate!

Love. Serve. Proclaim the good news: The kingdom of God has come near!

WELCA met on Thursday, June 13, 2019 at 7 P.M. in the Young Adult Sunday School Class area. Each member brought a reading for our program this month. We had a variety some of which was humorous, some Biblical, one on Normandy, and a couple of poems that were written by Dorothy Smith entitled "Summer of 2008" and "WELCA 2008", and a poem written by Helen Steiner Rice. Everyone enjoyed the messages.

A short business meeting followed with the group deciding to contribute $200.00 toward Camp Mt. Luther's REACH 25 project and $75.00 for a bench at the camp. Barb will contact the camp to determine who to make the checks out to and confirm that benches are still needed.

Cynthia, Barb, and Linda will be attending the convention the end of July. Information is in the newsletter if anyone else is interested in attending. You can contact any of these three women.

We continue to collect items for the Seafarers, the fabric kits, and Camp Mt. Luther. Items are listed in the newsletter and bulletins.

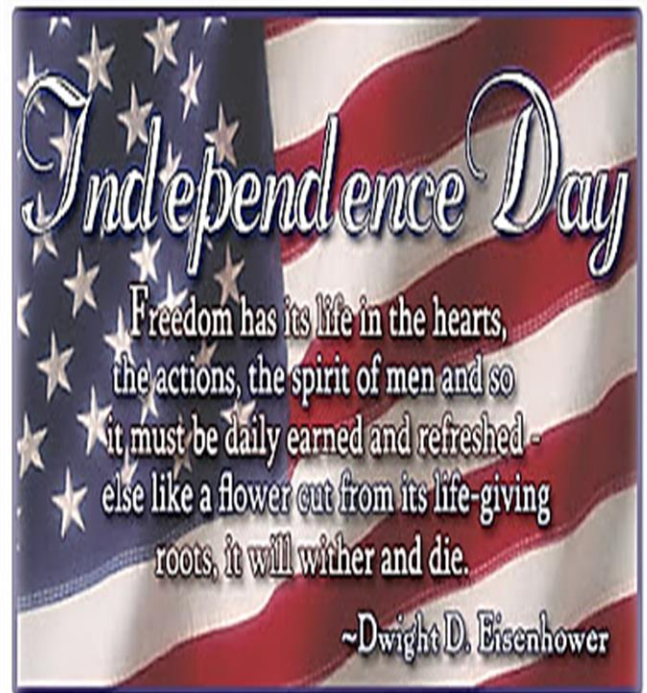

Cynthia will have the program on July 11th. All women are welcome to attend.

Everyone brought a snack for the evening and we had quite a variety. Thank you to all. We had a good time of socialization.

Respectfully submitted by Barb Geedey.

JULY 4TH PRAYER

Father,

I come to this July 4th, grateful for my country and grateful for the men and women who gave their lives so that I might be free.

I proclaim my allegiance to my country and total dedication to you, my Lord.

As I watch the magnificent explosions of color on this red, white, and blue holiday, I am reminded of my spectacular Lord and Savior who is great beyond my imagination.

May the name of the Lord be praised and celebrated throughout our country on this our joyous national holiday!

Amen.

OBITUARY AND COMMITTAL

Shirley Jean Kerr, 82 of Rural Hall, NC passed away May 14, 2019, after fighting a remarkable six-year battle with stage IV lung cancer. She was born to the late Rebecca and J. Glen Varnes, April 27, 1937 in Lewistown, Pa. Shirley was raised in Mifflintown, Pa. as the youngest of six children, graduated from Juniata Joint High School and received her nursing degree from the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital School of Nursing. Afterwards, she married her life-long sweetheart from the age of 9, the boy-next-door on October 4, 1958 at the Messiah Lutheran Church of Mifflintown. They lived and raised six children in Florida for 45 years before relocating to Rural Hall.

Shirley is survived by her husband, John F. Kerr, and sister Jane White of East Waterford, PA, sisters-in-law Romaine and Louise Varnes, her four sons and daughters-in-law, Gregory and Kim Kerr of Vero Beach, FL, Douglas and Dawn Kerr of Vero Beach, FL, Phillip and Jennifer Kerr of Rural Hall, NC, Jeffrey Kerr and daughter and husband, Candace and Lester Bracy. She was also blessed with many surviving grandchildren and their spouses, April and Richard Dericks, Daniel and Caitlin Dillard, Brian Kerr, Zachary and Brandi Kerr, Isaac and Gabby Kerr, Mariah and Skylar Beverage, Andrew Kerr, Alexandria and Alexander Cartrette, Alexander Bracy, Christopher Bracy, and Phillip Bracy. Her most precious joys in later years was the addition of her great grandchildren, Theodore Cartrette and Charlotte Kerr. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Crystal Dillard Kerr in August 2018, her sister Dorothy and brothers Donald, Ted, and Roland Varnes and brother-in-law Raymond White.

Shirley was an accomplished registered nurse, who never stopped learning and teaching other nurses and doctors about medicine and the human condition, both physical and spiritual. She was an inspiring role model, one of the first girls to play tuba in her high school marching band and while many other mothers during this time period stayed home, Shirley worked full-time at night and raised their six children by day. Her love and compassion for others was reflected in her nursing and demonstrated by numerous gifts she kept with her throughout the years from her patients.

Shirley was married to her husband of 60 years and life-long partner for over 70 years. She adored her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom she showered with love, advice with the utmost honesty, and her tremendous gifts of quilting, embroidery, crocheting, and numerous other crafts. Shirley also loved to cook and bake for the masses and was known as the "Neighborhood Mom" lending her unending support and love for her children to their friends and neighbors with an open-door policy. While her compassion, guidance and commitment to this life will be missed, her laughter, wit and inspiration will continue to live-on in everyone she touched.

A Celebration of her life was held on Saturday, May 25, 2019 at 11 a.m. at Hayworth-Miller Funeral Home in Rural Hall, NC. Shirley was laid to rest on Saturday, June 21, 2019 at Westminster Presbyterian Cemetery in Mifflintown, Pa with the Reverend Chris Mathiason officiating. The family requests that donations can be made in support of lung or ovarian cancer research, in lieu of sending flowers.
